BANDS4CHANGE PRESENTS

KESHA AND THE CREEPIES

AT THE STROH CENTER

JANUARY 27, 2017 FOR BENEFIT CONCERT

Bands4Change has partnered with pop sensation Kesha for their inaugural fundraising music event! It will be held at the Stroh Center on the campus of Bowling Green State University on Friday, January 27, 2017.

Bands4Change was established in October 2015 by Maya Dayal, a 17-year-old high school student from Toledo, Ohio. She founded the company to combine her passion for music with her interest in making quantifiable changes in social issues. Bands4Change creates concert events that raise awareness about local and global social issues, and raises money for charities addressing those issues. Bands4Change donates 100% of profits from its concerts to charities of the artist's choice.

Kesha has chosen three charities to receive 100% of profits from this concert: Humane Society International, National Eating Disorder Association, and Rape Abuse & Incest National Network.

Tickets available through Ticketmaster and the BGSU box office. Doors open at 7pm. Early admission doors open at 6pm. (Official Flyer accompanies this release.)
