BANDS4CHANGE PRESENTS: KESHA

BY KIMBERLY FELDKAMP (<HTTP://TOLEDOPARENT.COM/AUTHOR/KIMBERLY-FELDKAMP/>). DECEMBER 29, 2016.

She's still in high school, but Maumee Valley Country Day School student Maya Dayal knows how to get things done. The senior started a company called Bands4Change (<http://www.bands4change.org/>), which creates fundraising concerts to raise awareness of local and global social issues and raise money for charities to address those issues. Bands4Change donates 100% of profits from concerts to charities of the artist's choice.

On Friday, January 27, Bands4Change will put on a concert featuring Kesha at the Stroh Center at Bowling Green State University. Profits from the concert will be donated to three charities: Humane Society International, National Eating Disorder Association, and Rape Abuse & Incest National Network.

Available through Ticketmaster, on Facebook (<https://www.facebook.com/Bands4Change/>) or at the BGSU box office.
